

THE BOURBON NEWS.

PUBLISHED EVERY TUESDAY AND FRIDAY

SWIFT CHAMP, EDITOR AND OWNER.

We are authorized to announce

ROBERT C. GOREY

As a candidate for Representative from Bourbon County to the next General Assembly. Election November 6th.

Bolters.

Alex. Davezac, defeated Democratic candidate for County Clerk of Kenton, and Claude Chinn, late Republican candidate for the same office in Fayette county, will both make the race on an independent ticket.

On account of age, Admiral Schley was on Wednesday placed on the retired list.

THE President has appointed Thos. Goode Jones, the former Democratic Governor of Alabama, to the vacant Alabama Federal judgeship. Ex-Governor Jones always has been a Democrat, and was twice Chief Executive of his State. He was General Gordon's Adjutant General during the Civil War.

SENATOR HOAR, in delivering an eulogy on the life and character of the late President, said:

"I believe if every Protestant were to be stricken down by a lightning stroke that our brethren of the Catholic faith would still carry on the Republic in the spirit of a true and liberal freedom. I believe if every man of the North were to die the new and chastened South, with the virtues it has cherished from the beginning, of love of home and love of State, and love of freedom, with its courage and constancy, would take the country and bear it on to the achievements of its lofty destiny. The anarchist must slay 75,000,000 Americans before he can slay the Republic."

OBITUARY.

Dr. H. B. Davis, of Lexington, aged 51 years, died at his residence Wednesday afternoon at 4:05 o'clock. Death is supposed to have been caused primarily by an overdose of morphine taken the night before to induce sleep.

Dr. Davis was born at Hutchison, this county, October 28, 1850. He graduated from the Louisville Medical School and practiced medicine for two years. He then went into the drug business in this city. He moved to Lexington twelve years ago and entered the drug business with Mr. George L. Robinson.

He married Charlotte Bush Bruce, daughter of Dr. J. M. Bruce, of Lexington. He leaves three children, Misses Margaret Skillman and Jo Ida and John Bruce Davis.

Dr. Davis was a brother of J. W. and John N. Davis, merchants of this city, and was very popular with all who knew him.

The funeral services will take place from the residence, No. 71 North Mill street, this morning at 10:30 o'clock.

Mr. Ben T. Shropshire died at his home near Leesburg, on Tuesday afternoon, aged about 80 years. A few days ago he had a small piece of skin knocked off the back of his hand which resulted in blood poisoning, causing his death. He is survived by his wife, nee Smith, one son, Jefferson, and a daughter, Mrs. Gaibrilla Sanders, of Texas.

Miss Lucinda Rees Jones aged 70 years, and mother of Mr. Geo. Jones, living near Paris, died at Mt. Sterling Saturday.

Joel T. Embrey, ex-Confederate, aged 63 years, died at Waco, Friday.

Miss Sue Ratliff, aged 21 years, died at Bethel, Wednesday, of consumption.

Matrimonial.

Mr. Letton Vimont of Millersburg and Miss Bessie Dudley will wed Wednesday at the home of the bride in Carlisle.

John G. Redmon, of this city and Miss Anna Belle Moore, of Hamilton, Ohio, were married yesterday at noon at the home of the bride in Hamilton.

The marriage of Miss Bell Spencer, of Elizaville, Fleming county, and John Goff Bedford, of Winchester is announced to occur October 30, 1901.

Low Rates to New York.

The B. & O. S. W. are selling tickets to New York and return at low rates, going via Washington, Baltimore and Philadelphia; returning via Buffalo and Niagara Falls allowing one stop-over in each direction. For particulars address O. P. McCarty, General Passenger Agent, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Stock and Crop.

Corn buyers at Nicholasville are offering $3.25 per barrel for the new crop.

At a sale near Richmond, corn brought $2.25 in the field and $2.75 delivered.

Horace Miller sold Wednesday to Ben Kindig, of York, Pa., 28 head of extra nice yearling mare mules at a fancy price.

A farmer in Breckinridge county estimates that he is getting $1.50 a bushel for his corn by selling his hogs at 7c a pound.

The Ohio report for October makes wheat crop 31,000,000 bu; oats 33,000,000 bu; corn condition 65 per cent. of an average crop.

S. C. Carpenter bought of Mann & Fahrman one of the finest car-loads of mules to be found in the State. The average weight was about 1,300 lbs.

Bessie Spahr, one of Mr. Hal Woodford's good two-year-olds who won the Forward Stakes at Harlem Park Tuesday, was sold after the race for $7,500.

S. C. Franklin, of Mt. Vernon, has opened a ginseng nursery and set about 3,500 plants the past season, besides selling several thousand plants to beginners in the business.

At Harrodsburg W. C. Terhune bought 49 mule colts Monday at an average of $24. Levi Miller bought a car of mixed mules at $21 for colts, $60 for yearlings and $70 to $80 for aged mules.

In many of the counties of the State the tobacco crop is said to be the largest in the last twenty years. In Russell county it is said the crop will average 300 pounds heavier to the acre than it did last season.

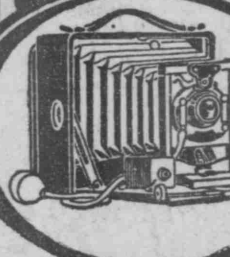

The largest horse in the world is owned by George M. Teggard, of El Paso, Ill. The animal is a coal black Shire gelding, six years old, standing 21.1 hands and is well proportioned. He weighs in good condition, upward of 3,000 pounds.

De-n Baker P. Lee, of Christ Church Cathedral, at Lexington, enclosing a check for $5 as a contribution to the Kentucky Trotting Horse Breeders Association, says:

"From a 'parson' this may seem strange, but like the Roman Senator who said: 'Nothing that concerns man is foreign to me,' so I think nothing that concerns a community is foreign to its preachers. With best wishes for your success and that of Boralma, I am, very truly yours."

At Richmond court-day the largest crowd which has been seen on the streets in many a day. The stock market was fairly good. About 400 mule colts were offered, the best finding ready sales. Prices ranged from $30 to $80. Quite a number of aged mules were on the market and brought good prices. Norris Bros., reported about 2,000 head of cattle at the stock yards, but a dull market. Steers brought from 3 to 3½ cents, heifers from 2 to 2½ cents; calves from 1 to 2½ cents. A few sheep were offered but none sold.

You Do, or You Don't Need Glasses

The eye being a rather delicate organ, great care should be exercised in the selection of proper glasses. Many believe that glasses should be restored to only when the sight becomes so defective as not to be able to do without. This is a great mistake which must be combatted. Whenever there is unmistakable evidence of the need of their aid, they should be used. A neglect of this rule sometimes produces mischief which results in serious trouble if the course be persisted in.

Our Dr. C. H. BOWEN having just returned from taking a special course in Optics from one of the best specialists in New York, is prepared to do the best of work, having the latest improved methods of fitting. Examinations free. Next visit Thursday, Oct. 24, 1901.
